DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election of Group I, claims 37, 41, 44-47, 55 and 58 in the reply filed on 28 July 2008 is acknowledged. Because applicant did not distinctly and specifically point out the supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election has been treated as an election without traverse (MPEP § 818.03(a)).

Claims 38-40, 42-43, 48-54, 56-57 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 28 July 2008.

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 01/11/2006 is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97 and has been considered by the examiner.

Specification

Art Unit: 1647

Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an abstract of the disclosure.

A patent abstract is a concise statement of the technical disclosure of the patent and should include that which is new in the art to which the invention pertains

The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art.

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it is not directed to the invention as defined by the claims. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) THE NAMES OF THE PARTIES TO A JOINT RESEARCH AGREEMENT.
- (e) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC.
- (f) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (g) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (h) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (i) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (j) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (l) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: the specification does not follow the above order or use the appropriate section headings.

Appropriate correction is required.

The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Objections

Claims 37, 41, 44-47, 55 and 58 are objected to because of the following informalities: the claims include non-elected inventions. Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 44-46 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claims 44-46 include recitations of intended use, however, these recitations do not appear to further limit the subject matter of the claim from which they depend. The recitation of "which is a diagnostic and/or a therapeutic composition" in claim 44 does not materially limit the subject matter of claim 37, therefore, it is not further limiting. In claims 45-46, the claims indicate that the composition is "for" a particular purpose, but again, these recitations do not further limit because they do not materially change or limit the composition of the claim from which they depend. Therefore, the claims are not further limiting.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC §§ 112 and 101

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 37, 41, 44-47, 55 and 58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The instant claims recite "DG153", however, this term is not art recognized and its mere recitation does not convey what is actually being claimed. Without more, such as an amino acid sequence or the chemical nature of the molecule being claimed, the skilled artisan is not apprised of what is being claimed. Therefore, the claims are indefinite because the metes and bounds of "DG153" are not clear.

Claims 47 and 55 provide for the use of DG153, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Art Unit: 1647

Claims 47 and 55 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 37, 41, 44-46 and 58 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Pat. Appl. Pub.. 2002/0132978 A1 (Gerber et al.)

Gerber et al. teach a protein which is 100% identical to the disclosed amino acid sequence of DG153 (see SEQ ID NO:6). Gerber et al. teach incorporation of the protein of interest into pharmaceutical compositions (see [0306]). This disclosure meets the limitations of the instant claims. The recitation of the claims regarding intended use are noted, however, they do not place any material limitation on the composition, therefore, the prior art still anticipates the instant claims. Claim 58 is directed to a kit, however, this does not distinguish from the prior art of the isolated protein. Therefore, the claims are anticipated by the prior art of Gerber et al.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.
